ISKALO'S ELECTRIC TOWER HOSTS BUFFALO NIAGARA 360 LAUNCH PARTY

The historic Electric Tower, owned by Iskalo Development Corp., was the site of The Buffalo Niagara Partnership's new Buffalo Niagara 360 program launch party on October 16, 2008. With over 350 guests in attendance, the "sold out" event brought together the region's next generation of local business leaders, innovators and employers. Guests of the launch event enjoyed the intricacy and beauty of the building via guided tours, while enjoying drinks, appetizers and music.

One of the most recognizable buildings in the Buffalo skyline, the Electric Tower has been returned to its original grandeur including a comprehensive restoration of the building lobby and common areas, and a full building mechanical system replacement. The building combines modern office amenities with the charm and character present only in a true landmark setting.
